

-If you were telling a friend about the sermon this week, how could you sum up the point of this passage in one sentence?

-What is the one word of command to the people of God in this passage?

-In the sermon, a difference was drawn between a mere 'manner of life' and 'citizenship'. Why is this distinction important, and how could it affect a Christian church?

-Paul is concerned about the church's standing firm in one spirit, and striving for the faith of the gospel (v27). What does this imply about the types of things which were threatening them?

-How would you explain a Christian life that is 'worthy of the gospel' to a child? What does it look like?

-If you were telling a friend about the sermon this week, how could you sum up the point of this passage in one sentence?

-What is the one word of command to the people of God in this passage?

-In the sermon, a difference was drawn between a mere 'manner of life' and 'citizenship'. Why is this distinction important, and how could it affect a Christian church?

-Paul is concerned about the church's standing firm in one spirit, and striving for the faith of the gospel (v27). What does this imply about the types of things which were threatening them?

-How would you explain a Christian life that is 'worthy of the gospel' to a child? What does it look like?

-Respond to this statement which was made in the sermon this week:

What you are called to do and to be as a Christian, is always founded upon who He is, what He has done, is doing or will do.

-In what ways is salvation God's gift?

-How is faith presented in this passage a gift from God? How could this truth change your thinking about the Christian life?

-Read Acts 14:22; 2 Timothy 3:12; and John 16:33. Jot down any thoughts that you have as you read through them.

-Now read Romans 5:3-5; James 1:2-4 and Romans 8:35-39

Give a one sentence perspective on suffering from what you've seen in these scriptures and the passage we're studying:

-Respond to this statement which was made in the sermon this week:

What you are called to do and to be as a Christian, is always founded upon who He is, what He has done, is doing or will do.

-In what ways is salvation God's gift?

-How is faith presented in this passage a gift from God? How could this truth change your thinking about the Christian life?

-Read Acts 14:22; 2 Timothy 3:12; and John 16:33. Jot down any thoughts that you have as you read through them.

-Now read Romans 5:3-5; James 1:2-4 and Romans 8:35-39

Give a one sentence perspective on suffering from what you've seen in these scriptures and the passage we're studying: